During the morning I telephoned Secretaries Lovett and Snyder and cleared with them the question of Secretary Acheson going to Europe, and what should be done about the NATO meeting. The meeting would be held immediately after EDC and German contractual arrangements, and they agreed that no substantive questions would be discussed. The only business might be a ratification of the protocol.

At 12:15 met with Messrs. Lewis, Raymond, Parsons, Calhoun, and Ben Brown on the German contractual arrangements.

At 5:00 o'clock Jean Monnet stopped by the house.

Attended Alibi Club dinner.

Today we drove over to Baltimore to visit the family. Uncle Este is 92 but since his recent severe abdominal operation is feeble. At 90 he was arrested, while he was driving his car, for speeding.
